

We know many of you are supporting our colleagues at Valley Vets in their endeavour to improve pay and conditions within their practice.

They are the first workforce in the veterinary industry to undergo a postal ballot and now the first to ballot for industrial action.

They are doing this not only for themselves, but for everyone in sector.

The results are now in, following a 3 week long postal ballot for industrial action..

With a fantastic 93% turnout for balloting....

94% VOTED YES
for industrial action

What's next? ..stay tuned!

Fair fees for pet owners
Fair pay for veterinary workers
Smaller profits for fat cats
